To Delinquent Subscribers

The Clipper still has a number of subscribers' names on its mailing list, who have not paid any attention to our notices during the past several weeks about coming in and renewing.

There are a few who have paid up and will continue receiving their paper. There are many others who will be dropped from the list within the next two weeks. This is our final notice. We would like to retain your name on the mailing list, but must have renewals AT ONCE.

We do not want to stop your paper, but in order to comply with mailing regulations, and to help us meet the cost of printing and mailing the paper, we will be forced to drop all names when the time has expired.

The label on your paper today will show how your subscription account stands (unless you have renewed within the past three weeks). Look at this label RIGHT NOW and then come in or send us the money. If you do not attend to this matter you will not receive the paper.

We think not. We believe that our so-called civilization is centered so completely on material positions that the world has lost whatever spiritual values and least it may have once held. In a truly civilized world there would be no frontiers, no barriers to the free movement of peoples and trade, no such mass greed and national selfashness as harass the world today.

Special Notice

To Delinquent Subscribers

The Clipper still has a number of subscribers' names on its mailing list, who have not paid any attention to our notices during the past several weeks about coming in and renewing.

There are a few who have paid up and will continue receiving their paper. There are many others who will be dropped from the list after this week.

This is our final notice. We would like to retain your name on the mailing list, but must have renewals AT ONCE.

We do not want to stop your paper, but in order to comply with mailing regulations, and to help us meet the cost of printing and mailing the paper, we will be forced to drop all names when the time has expired.

The label on your paper today will show how your subscription account stands (unless you have renewed within the past three weeks). Look at this label RIGHT NOW and then come in or send us the money. If you do not attend to this matter you will not receive another paper.
